Sound Service in Banking

A bank to care for your funds can best be judged by its past performances.

The record behind this bank is your surety for its capabilities in banking your finances, in the future.

All our transactions bear the evidence of conservative management, which has resulted in a growth most gratifying to ourselves and our depositors.

First National Bank

When It Seems Impossible TO Save Money

on what you think is your limited income, look around and you will find some of your friends with smaller incomes who save money regularly. Maybe you will have the courage to try it for yourself.

You will need a real determination to save if you ever expect to accomplish anything in that way, and the first important thing is to realize the necessity for it. Then open a savings account here as soon as you can.

HISTORICAL SPOTS

Located and marked by a Committee of the Molly Reid
Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

At East Derry.

Site of the first meetinghouse, on the Common just north of the present church. Built in 1723, "Fifty feet in length, forty-five feet broad and so high as may be convenient for one set of galleries."

The present church edifice was built in 1769. Enlarged in 1824. Thoroughly remodeled in 1845 and again in 1883.

Site of the first school house, on the Common near the meetinghouse. Built of logs in 1723. Sixteen feet long and twelve feet wide.

Site of Classical High School, on the Common near the Cemetery. Established 1793.

On the same site Adams Female Academy was first opened in 1823. Endowed by Mr. Jacob Adams it was the first female academy incorporated in the State and among the first in the world.

Site of the first Post Office, on the north side of the main street on present F. J. Shepard place. Established September 30, 1795. Dr. Issac Thom was the first Postmaster, and kept the office in his Tavern afterwards known as Willey Tavern.

The First Bank was in the brick building opposite the Thom-Willey Tavern. Chartered in 1829 by the name of Derry Bank with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars. Alanson Tucker, Esq., was its first President and James Thom, Esq., its Cashier. This bank was the forerunner of the present Derry National Bank.

All dividends have been at the rate of 5 per cent per annum compounded semi-annually.

Shares of the 1st series (taken out Sept. 1, 1915) now show $48 paid in and dividends earned $5.20. This is the result of saving only one dollar each month. At the end of another four years these same shares will show $96 paid in and dividends earned about $22. About eight years from now these shares will mature at $200 each, representing $144 paid in and $56 earned.

Our next series will open September 1st. It will be our Fourth Anniversary and we ask you to "celebrate" by opening with us the kind of savings account that grows faster than any other kind equally safe.

Any person may take from one to twenty-five shares (no more) and each share taken requires the deposit of $1 a month.

Our Directors are very busy men, but they meet once every month without recompense, to look after the affairs of this institution, the profits of which are divided every six months in the form of dividends, and credited to the shareholders. It is a mutual corporation and the Directors interests and your interests are identically the same.

HISTORICAL SPOTS (Continued)

A new meetinghouse was built near the center of the town in 1798. This is now the Town Hall. The present Church was built in 1834.

*The first cemetery was the Old Cemetery on the Plain. The first burial was David, son of Elizabeth (Kyle) Gregg in March 1749.

The second Cemetery was on the Hill near the first meetinghouse. The first burial here was William Bolton, died April 22, 1759. After the church was removed the place upon which it had stood was occupied. The scholarly and eccentric Rev. Simon Williams reposes beneath the spot where his pulpit stood and Mr. Samuel Senter lies beneath his pew in the old Church.

Indian Rock on the highway between John H. Dinsmore's and the Meetinghouse, rises some five feet above the ground. On the top is a circular hole, in which tradition says that Indians used to pound their corn.

Butterfield's Rock, near a cross road about one and a half miles from the center of town. A large boulder of granite about twenty feet in height, resting like an inverted cone on an outcropping surface of mica slate.

Site near Golden's Brook, where John Gregg aged fourteen years was killed by Indians about 1721. The only recorded instance of Indian atrocity within the limits of the colony.

Birthplace of the elder Governor Samuel Dinsmoor in the easterly part of the town, on Jenny's Hill. This hill was so called for Miss Jenny, daughter of Rev. James MacGregor of Londonderry.

Home of Robert Dinsmoor, the "Rustic Bard," and brother of the elder Gov. Dinsmoor, was on Dinsmoor Hill in close proximity to Jenny's Hill.

*Not marked.

In the old East Derry Cemetery the Cemetery Association have located and marked the graves of six of the original settlers.

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Shoud auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

We twa hae run a-boot the braes,
And pu'd the gowans fine;
But we've wander'd mony a weary foot
Sin' auld lang syne.

And here's a hand, my trusty frien',
And gie's a hand o' thine;

200th ANNIVERSARY

COMMUNITY
SONG SERVICE

East Derry Common

SUNDAY

August, 24, 5 p. m., 1919

AMERICA

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing:

• Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrim's pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills:
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake:
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break;
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light:
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King! A-men.

DUKE STREET

O God, beneath Thy guid-ing hand
Our ex-iled fa-thers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the win-try strand
With pray'r and psalm they worshipp'd Thee.

Thou heard'st, well pleased, the song, the prayer:
Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward, through all a-ges, bear
The memory of that ho-ly hour.

Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves;
And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

And here Thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall a-dore,
Till these e-ter-nal hills re-move,
And spring adorns the earth no more. A-men.

ITALIAN HYMN

Come, Thou Al-mighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing, Help us to praise:
Fa-ther, all-glo-ri-ous, O'er all vic-to-ri-ous,
Come, and reign o-ver us, An-cient of Days.

Come, Thou In-car-nate Word,
Gird on Thy might-y sword, Our prayer at-tend:
Come, and Thy peo-ple bless, And give Thy world success;
Spir-it of ho-li-ness On us de-scend.

Come, Ho-ly Com-fort-er,
Thy sa-cred wit-ness bear In this glad hour:
Thou Who Al-might-y art, Now rule in ev'-ry heart,
And ne'er from us de-part, Spir-it of power. A-men.

ST. THOMAS

Come, we who love the Lord,
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song of sweet ac-cord,
And thus surround the throne.

Let those re-fuse to sing
Who nev-er knew our God;
But chil-dren of the heav'n-ly King
Should speak their joys a-broad.

The men of grace have found
Glo-ry be-gun be-low;
Ce-les-tial fruits on earth-ly ground
From faith and hope may grow.

Then let our songs abound
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Emmanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

EWING

Je-ru-sa-lem the golden, With milk and hon-ey blest!
Be-neath thy con-tem-pla-tion Sink heart and voice op-prest.

I know not, O I know not, What joys a-wait us there;
What ra-dian-cy of glo-ry, What bliss be-yond compare.

They stand, those hall of Zi-on, All ju-bi-lant with song,
And bright with many an an-gel, And all the mar-tyr throng.

The Prince is ev-er in them, The day-light is se-rene;
The pas-tures of the bless-ed Are decked in glo-rious sheen.

There is the throne of Da-vid; And there, from care
re-leased,

The song of them that tri-umph, The shout of them
that feast;

And they, who with their Lead-er Have conquered in the fight,

For ev-er and for ev-er Are clad in robes of white.

A-men.

ST. GERTRUDE

On-ward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus Go-ing on be-fore;
Christ the royal Mas-ter Leads a-gainst the foe;
Forward in-to battle, See, His banner go.

Onward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Je-sus Going on before.

Like a might-y army Moves the Church of God;
Brothers we are treading Where the saints have trod;
We are not di-vid-ed, All one bod-y we,
One in hope and doc-trine, One in char-i-ty.

Onward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Je-sus Going on before.

Crowns and thrones may perish, Kingdoms rise and wane,

But the Church of Jesus Constant will re-main;
Gates of hell can nev-er 'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise, And that cannot fail.

Onward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Je-sus Going on before.

Onward, then, ye peo-ple! Join our hap-py throng!
Blend with ours your voices In the tri-umph song;
Glo-ry, laud, and hon-or, Un-to Christ the King;
This thro' countless a-ges Men and an-gels sing.

Onward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war,
With the cross of Je-sus Going on before.

A-men.

WEBB

Stand up, stand up for Je-sus! Ye sol-diers of the cross;
Lift high His roy-al ban-ner, It must not suf-fer loss:
From vic-t'ry un-to vic-t'ry His army shall He lead;
Till ev-ery foe is van-quish'd And Christ is Lord in-deed.

Stand up, stand up for Je-sus! The trum-pet call o-bey;
Forth to the might-y con-flict, In this His glo-rious day:
Ye that are men, now serve Him, A-gainst un-num-ber'd foes;
Let cour-age rise with dan-ger, And strength to strength oppose.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus! Stand in His strength a-lone;
The arm of flesh will fail you; Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gos-pel arm-or, Each piece put on with pray'r;
Where du-ty calls, or dan-ger, Be nev-er want-ing there.

Stand up, stand up for Je-sus! The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of bat-tle, The next the vic-tor's song:
To Him that o-ver-com-eth, A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glo-ry Shall reign e-ter-nal-ly.
A-men.

ADESTE FIDELES

How firm a foun-da-tion, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in His ex-cel-lent Word;
What more can He say than to you He hath said,
To you who for ref-uge to Je-sus have fled,
To you who for ref-uge to Je-sus have fled?

"Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dis-mayed,
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strength-en thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Up-held by My right-eous, om-nip-o-tent hand,
Up-held by My right-eous, om-nip-o-tent hand,

"The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!" A-men.

CORONATION

All hail the pow'r of Jesus' name!
Let an-gels pros-trate fall;
Bring forth the roy-al di-a-dem,
And crown Him Lord of all!
Bring forth the roy-al di-a-dem,
And crown Him Lord of all!

Crown Him ye mar-tyrs of your God
Who from His al-tar call;
Ex-tol the stem of Jes-se's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all!
Ex-tol the stem of Jes-se's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all!

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all!
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all!

Oh, that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall,
Join in the everlasting song
And crown Him Lord of all!
Join in the everlasting song
And crown Him Lord of all! A-men.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see, by the dawn's ear-ly light,
What so proud-ly we hailed at the twi-light's last gleam-ing,

Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the peril-ous fight,

O'er the ram-parts we watch'd were so gal-lan-ly stream-ing?

And the rock-ets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there,

O say, does the Star-span-gled Ban-ner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dim-ly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haugh-ty host in dread si-lence repos-es,

What is that which the breeze, o'er the tow-er-ing steep,

As it fit-ful-ly blows, half con-ceals, half dis-clos-es?
Now it catch-es the gleam of the morn-ing's first beam,

In full glo-ry re-flect-ed now shines on the stream;
'Tis the Star-span-gled Ban-ner— O long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

And where is that band who so vaunt-ing-ly swore
That the hav-oc of war and the bat-tle's con-fu-sion
A home and a coun-try should leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul foot-steps' pol-lu-tion.

No ref-uge could save the hire-ling and slave
From the ter-ror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the Star-span-gled Ban-ner in tri-umph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

O thus be it e'er when free-men shall stand
Be-tween their loved homes and the war's des-o-la-tion;
Blest with vic-t'ry and peace, may the Heav'n res-cued land

Praise the Pow'r that hath made and pre-serv'd us a nation.

Then con-quer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our mot-to, "In God is our trust;"

And the Star-span-gled Banner in tri-umph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

TABLET DEDICATED

Eagles Pay Tribute to Their Members in Service

In the presence of 500 or more people Sunday afternoon, Derry aerie of Eagles unveiled a tablet in honor of its members who have seen service in the great world's war, 34 in number, and 31 of whom have returned to their native heath. David Varney and John F. Martel are still overseas, and Charles Hollingshead, the only member of the United States Marines from Derry, who was killed in action, rests in peace on Flanders field.

The bronze tablet rests on an easel in front of the Eagles home on West Broadway, and during the exercises Sunday afternoon beside it stood a fitting memorial with a picture of Charles Hollingshead, draped in mourning. The Derry band furnished excellent music for the occasion, and Joseph A. Levesque was chairman of the day, opening with a few brief words as to the purpose of the gathering, and then the roll was called by Secretary Byron S. Aiken, all responding except the three named. And when the name of Charles Hollingshead was called the fire bell tolled the mournful signal which told in solemn tones of the absence of one member forever. The tablet was unveiled by Mrs. Annie Hollingshead and Miss Abbie E. Hollingshead, mother and sister of the young man whose face is hidden for all time in this world.

Alden G. Kelley was next introduced and spoke impressively on the teachings of the order, of the willing spirit with which its members had responded to the call of their country, and commended the boys for the work they did on foreign fields, and expressed the gratification of all that no more had been prevented coming home to the fire-sides before which they have grown to manhood and usefulness. The large audience stood with bared heads while the band played the Star Spangled Banner, and the exercises were brought to a successful close.

Morrison-Rioux

Cecil Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Morrison of 14 Cedar street, and Miss Rose Rioux were united in marriage Saturday evening, the nuptial knot being tied by Justice of the Peace Walter H. Warren. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waters.

Mrs. Mabel H. Warren and Mrs. Phoebe Hepworth left today for Newport to attend the grand chapter of the Eastern Star, the former being one of the grand officers.

They Split Even

D. A. A. met its old rivals from Raymond for morning and afternoon games yesterday and split results, the locals taking the first by a score of 6 to 5, and Raymond the afternoon contest 2 to 1. In the morning the batteries were Muldoon and Whittemore for Derry, and York and Ladd for Raymond. The locals made eight hits and two errors, while the visitors got seven hits and a clean slate in the error column. In the afternoon Underhill, the one-armed twirler, and Ladd went against Gingras and Whittemore, the visitors winning by a close margin. Raymond got 10 hits and Derry 13, but they were too scattered to count for runs. Each side tallied one error. Features in the morning were a three-bagger by Bergeron and a home run by Webster of the locals. In the afternoon, while Gingras made a three-bagger, the feature was Fred Corson of Candia who played with Raymond, and the former heavy hitter at Pinkerton, striking out four times.

Capt. Thomas Livingston and daughter, Jeannie, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. MacKellar of Birch street, the captain returning to his home in Everett, Mass., last evening.

All Red Men interested in forming a Massasoit club are requested to meet at Red Men's hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

ANNIVERSARY POEM

WRITTEN BY LUCINDA J. GREGG

"Life in Old Londonderry"

The summer sky is just as blue, and the landscape just as green,
West Running Brook still flows along with all its silvery sheen,
In summer come the blossoms, and in winter falls the snow,
As in the days of Nutfield old, two hundred years ago.

All other things are changed indeed; the changes—oh! how vast!
Today we meet to talk about that far-off, dreamy past;
To tell once more the story old, to feel again the glow
Of blessed memories that recall two hundred years ago.

From Scotia's Lowlands came they here—a brave, heroic band;
At Erin's Isle they stayed a while, then sought this far-off land.
It was the Lord who led them on across the western wave.
The Children of the Covenant, those,—they all were true and brave.

They left their well-loved homes to find freedom to worship God;
They came into this wilderness where white men never trod.
No fields, no roads, no bridges here, no markets and no mills;
Only the forest dark was here, and the everlasting hills.

And yet it was a pleasant place, among the chestnut trees;
Sweet Liberty was in the air and danced on every breeze.
The little birds their welcome sang, and where the brooklet flows,
The wild geranium blossomed, and the pink sweet-brier rose.

The forest bowed before them, and the mills came fast along;
The sawmill first, the grain-mill next; today it is standing strong.
They built their houses first of logs and covered them with bark;
They made the sun shine in the woods and out went all the dark.

When the stretches of the sunshine among the trees grew long,
The little birds of happiness began to sing their song.
The low, brown homes where first they lived, along West Running Brook,
And the later homes upon the hills, took on a happy look.

They brought their Bibles with them, and each home an altar made.
The Bible was their statute-book; its precepts they obeyed.
They built the church upon the hill and the schoolhouse near at hand;
The work of a Bible-reading and a Bible-loving band.

Though hardships and privations came, yet work held many a charm;
Each woman had her linen wheel, and every man his farm.
They brought their thrifty trades with them, and while they worked, the sound
Of freedom's joyful song arose, and echoed all around.

They called it Nutfield at the first—and Nutfield grew apace;
Good men and strong soon came along and joined the thriving place;
A giant, too, came into town, and Progress was his name;
And Londonderry soon was known, a place of growing fame.

The forests fled, the harvests grew, and blessings crowned the town;
The linen cloth, so beautiful, brought money and renown,
The simple life was theirs of old, so little understood,
With pewter plates and sanded floors, and latches made of wood.

Their days were full of toil and care, but when the work was done,
They had their times of merriment, of laughter and of fun.
With stories, songs and dances, and with visits to and fro,
They made their simple pleasures, in the days of long ago.

On winter nights, beside the fire, they told their stories long;
While gaily, on the swinging crane, the kettle sang its song;
And oft, upon the settle, with the back-log burning low,
They told the dear old story there, so many years ago.

Unknown, the blessings of today, no newspaper, no mail,
No carriages of any kind, yet blessings did not fail.
No peril great of flood or flame or deeds of savage foes,
Came ever down upon the town—it blossomed as the rose.

While years went on, wise Progress marked this Londonderry town;
And schools were founded which became of great and wide renown.
And in the country's trial-times, brave men of power and might,
Stepped grandly forth, with courage bold, and battled for the right.

Fair Nutfield! oft we praise thee well! we love "thy rocks and rills;"
Thy lovely lakes, thy flowering fields, and thy majestic hills;
But more we praise the laws of right and justice, which we know
Good men laid down in Nutfield town, so many years ago.

Brave Nutfield! We salute thee now! Thy record is so grand!
All hail the World-war hero lads who joined the soldier band!
Six times has War's dread trumpet sounded out its clarion call!
And nobly have the Nutfield towns responded to them all.

"LIFE IN OLD LONDONDERRY"

And now we see another army coming down the years; They are the thousands who have gone to act in other spheres; Fame's roll-call claims so many names—we are proud of them today, We are just as proud of many at home, who never went away. O men of mighty faith and hope, and wives of equal worth! Whose influence great comes down the years, and goes to bless the earth! We crown you Conquerors today! Through obstacles untold, You helped to make a nation grow, in your trying times of old. All hail, old Londonderry town! Thine is an honored name! And in the annals of the land, forever rests thy fame! When we review thy story through two hundred years—we say "This is the land the Lord hath blessed; we praise His name today."

Georgianna Fontaine

The body of Miss Georgianna Fontaine, who died Sunday morning at the Notre Dame hospital in Manchester, aged 42, was forwarded to Derry, where funeral services were held in St. Thomas Aquinas church at 9:30 this morning, requiem mass being celebrated by Rev. Fr. Daniel J. Dunn, and burial was in Holy Cross cemetery by Undertaker Louis J. Provencher. The bearers were Nelson Fontaine, George Fontaine, Frank Fontaine and Ovid Gosselin. She is survived by three brothers and three sisters.

Wallace Reid Shows Speed

The second day of the big Paramount-Artcraft week will show the popular favorite, Wallace Reid in his latest release, "The Roaring Road," at the Broadway today, in which Wallace blossoms out as a speed king. During the filming of the scenes, Mr. Reid himself drove his racing car, taking all kinds of chances and driving at incredible speed, to secure the last word in realism.

A picture-play for everyone who owns, rides, drives, likes or wants an automobile.

He didn't know he was going 112 miles an hour. He never thought that he was smashing all records to smithereens.

All he knew was that SHE was there. SHE wanted and needed him. He was going to HER—in a car that was more than a brother to him.

Men Who love the touch of the wheel—women who love the throb of a mighty engine—children who coo and shout at the chug-chug of a car—THEY should see Wallace Reid in this great story of the road that is torn by an inferno of tearing wheels.

Also Hearst's Weekly and a Lyons-Moran comedy.

Broadway Tomorrow

The third day of the big Paramount-Artcraft week at the Broadway will witness John Barrymore in "The Test of Honor."

Dr. Walter I. Neller of New York City has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Neller of South avenue.

Prescott Torrey of Quincy, Mass., a graduate of Pinkerton academy, and but recently discharged from the service, and Miss Dorothy Boyden, daughter of Elmer Boyden of Londonderry, were quietly married at the home of the bride's father at 4:30 Sunday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Arthur R. Davies, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Only the immediate families witnessed the ceremony. They are to make their home in Londonderry.

At Etridge Farm

Labor day at the Thomas Etridge farm was of more than usual interest, numerous former boarders returning for the holiday, and all combining to make the time one of pure enjoyment for all. One special feature of the afternoon was the celebration of the 18th (?) birthday anniversary of Miss Anna Keefe, a collation being served at 3 o'clock. The center of the table was adorned by a handsome birthday cake, provided by Mrs. Etridge. Miss Keefe was presented a handsome bouquet of sweet peas, and entertainment followed as follows: Vocal selections, by Mrs. Giblin of East Boston and Miss Marion Edwards of Brookline; piano selections, Miss Elizabeth McDonald of Dorchester and Renten Giblin; readings, Edmund Giblin, M. J. McDonald; fancy step dancing; the whole concluding with appreciative remarks by Miss Keefe, and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Some knocks:
